

NATURE BASED DESTINATIONS AND COVID-19

Join us for an online webinar on May 27 at 12 p.m. (Zagreb time)

Focus of webinar will be on:

-  Nature based tourism destinations and COVID-19: from overtourism to undertourism
-  Post COVID-19 ecological and social reset
-  Park management, economy and COVID-19
-  Policy challenges, potential benefits and recovery

Target audience: nature-based tourism researchers and practitioners; protected areas management; graduate students

Moderator

Ante Mandić Assistant professor, Faculty of economics, business and tourism, University of Split

Topic: Nature-based tourism destinations and COVID-19

Participants

Izidora Marković Vukadin Science associate, Institut for tourism, Zagreb

Topic: PA post Covid era: "to be or not to be" for tourism development?

Jeremy Sampson CEO, The Travel Foundation

Topic: The Invisible Burden of Tourism

Luca Santarossa WWF Med Consultant, Project Development

Topic: Re-positioning PA-based tourism offer in a Covid19-driven tourism market: ecotourism as one of the solutions

Djordjije A. Vasiljevic Assistant professor, Faculty of Sciences, University of Novi Sad

Topic: Post COVID-19 ecological and social reset

Estimated duration: cca. 140 min

Webinar will be free of charge for all participants and available via Zoom platform. The number of participants is limited, and registration for the webinar is required via the link <https://bit.ly/web-natbas>

Organised by:

University of Split, Faculty of economics, business and tourism
& Institute for tourism, Zagreb, MEKST - The International Conference of Students of Tourism and Hotel Management
Supported by: The Travel Foundation, WWF Med